Closed Session Announcement

James Grier, Jr. announced that in Closed Session the Board voted to accept the voluntary resignation of the Superintendent, effective May 15, 2009. The Superintendent joins the Board in making the following statement:

Dr. Doyle's decision, although sudden, was his personal decision and not the result of any dispute between the Board and the Superintendent or any suspected wrongdoing on his part. Dr. Doyle has graciously agreed to make himself available to the Board to answer any questions and to ensure a smooth transition for an interim superintendent while the Board engages in the search process for a new superintendent. Dr. Doyle and the Board mutually appreciate the courtesy and respect given to each other regarding Dr. Doyle's decision to resign. The Board unanimously and sincerely wishes Dr. Doyle the very best in any future endeavors and thanks him for his service to our District. Dr. Doyle has expressed that it has been an honor for him to serve the children and families of the District.
