

Recruitment and Selection

The Business Services Division invites qualified applicants for membership on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee (CBOC) to submit an application for consideration to fill any open position. Advertisement for these positions is done through the District's website and through the local media.

The application process includes:

1. Complete application
2. Screening for minimum qualifications
3. Recommendation to/appointment by the Governing Board

Applications may be submitted via email to yolea@nsd.us, faxed to 619-336-7516, or sent via U.S. mail to the National School District, Attn: Yvette Olea, Business Services Division, 1500 "N" Avenue, National City, CA 91950. Inquiries may also be made at 619 336-7710.

Upon receipt of the applications, the Business Services Division will conduct a screening for minimum qualifications. Screening criteria includes:

- Submittal of complete application
- At least 18 yrs. of age
- Not an employee of the district, vendor, contractor, or consultant
- Requirements of the membership designation

Successful candidates are recommended to the Governing Board for appointment. The application outlining the qualifications of the recommended candidate is made available for public review. Personal contact information is redacted.

The member will be asked annually to complete and submit a Form 700 to comply with the statement of conflict of interest requirement.
