Board/Cabinet Communications

In addition to regular updates, Board and cabinet members thanked President Dalla for her leadership in speaking out against racism at the recent Coronado Board meeting.

“As Board members, we took an oath to serve the children of our communities. With a unified voice, we must rebuke the behavior that occurred this weekend. Words do not mean anything without action. We must use our positions as elected officials and district leaders to rectify this situation and double down on inclusive practices, diversity training, and equity efforts. Our kids are watching us.”
~ President Maria Dalla
